

Island Oasis Hotel and Spa

Let us cater to your every need!

It's a frigid winter in the northeast with more snow than a ski resort. Mr. & Mrs. Fitzhume & their two daughters decide to escape to the Island Oasis Hotel and Spa where they cater to your every need. Little did they know it would be a vacation they would never forget! Tragedy will strike this family and the detectives from the local police department invite you to join along in the investigation. Everyone is a suspect and you will have the opportunity to identify the guilty party.

Members from both St. John and St. Andrew's proudly present:
